

Lets Visit Balochistan

بلوچستان کی سیر

urdukutabkhanapk.blogspot

اُردو کتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

1) The Hannah Jheel, Quetta - This is how the Hannah Lake looks in winters. Frozen, frosted and astounding. This is where Quetta's escapes rest.

اُردو کُتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

2) Mud Volcanoes, Hingol - These deserted Mud volcanoes can be found in different regions of Balochistan. This particular one rests in Hingol, Balochistan.

اُردو کُتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

3) Moola Chotok, Khuzdar - This tourism deprived sight is known as Moola Chotok in Khuzdar, Balochistan. Amidst stronghold of nationalists in the Jhalawan belt, Chotok seems like a lost cause.

اُردو کُتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

4) Quaid-e-Azam Residency, Ziarat - Father of Pakistan, Quaid-e-Azam Mohommad Ali Jinnah spent his days of affliction in this wooden cottage in Ziarat, Balochistan.

اُردو کُتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

5) Pir Ghaib Falls, Bolan - This is an awe-inspiring view of Pir Ghaib, Balochistan. Locals here believe in the myth of the Invisible Saint (Pir Ghaib), who was saved by the Almighty.

اُردو کتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

6) Princess Of Hope, Gwadar - The Princess Of Hope is a 740 year old mountain near Gwadar, along the Makuran Coastal Highway. A spectacular view of its own!

اُردو کتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

7) Urrak Falls, Quetta - The Urrak falls are known as the younger sister to the Hannah Jheel. Mentioned together as Hannah Urrak, Urrak is a fathomable vacation spot for people of Quetta and around. Fresh water and good weather.

اُردو کتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

8) Astola Island, Gwadar/Pasni - Astola Island, also known as Jezira Haft Talar Satadip or 'Island of the Seven Hills', is a small uninhabited Pakistani island in the Arabian Sea. Also the largest island in Pakistan, it is the epitome of Balochistan's undermined beauty.

اُردو کُتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

9) The City of Gwadar - A city separated by the sea at both ends. Gwadar has the potential to be the trade hub of Pakistan. It is not just resourceful – also is breathtakingly beautiful.

اُردو کُتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

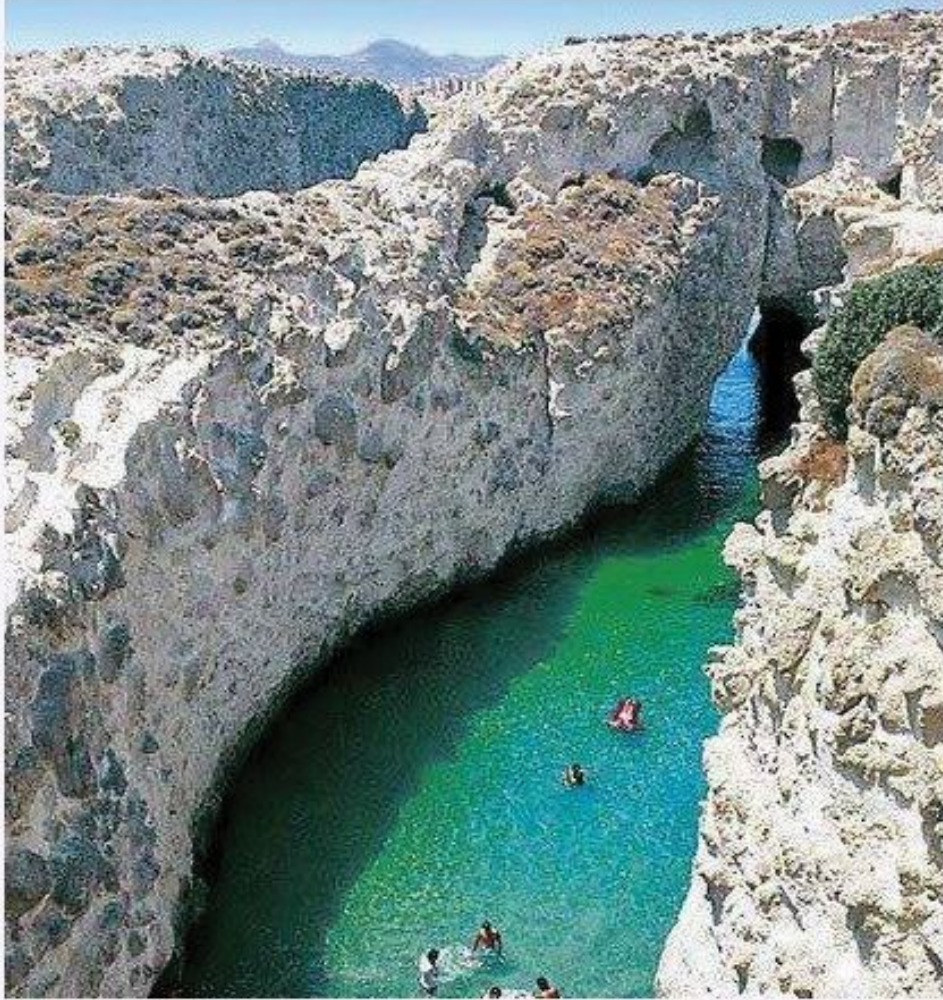

10) Salt Glaciers, Koh-e-Suleman - Yes you were mistaken if you thought this is snow. These are salt glaciers in the Koh-e-Suleman region of Balochistan. Not many know about these, let alone visit them.

اُردو کُتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

11) Khojak Pass, Chaman - Finally, this amazing water-clogged passage separates Pakistan from Afghanistan. Not many can get here but the ones who do are left awe-inspired.

اُردو کُتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

12. Hingol, Lasbela

اُردو کُتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT

اُردو کتب خانہ

URDUKUTABKHANAPK.BLOGSPOT